FINGER PRINT SIGNATURES.

A Manila Bank Requires Depositors to Affix Their Thumb Print.

Finger-print identification has been extended to commercial uses by the Postal Savings Banks of the Philippines at Manila. This bank has recently issued a series of stamp deposit cards on which are spaces for stamps of different value to be affixed. When the depositor has stamps to the face value of one peso on the card it is exchanged at the bank for a deposit book showing the amount to his credit. Opposite the lines for the owner's signature and address is a square ruled off for the reception of his thumb print; so that, even if illiterate, depositors may readily be identified.—London Tit-Bits.

Pointer Leads to Lost Dog's Grave.

Three years ago, while hunting in Bucks county, John D. Wilkinson of West Manayunk lost his favorite dog Fetch, and the mystery of the cannel's disappearance was not solved until recently, when gunning for rabbits in the same vicinity a pointer acted so strangely around a rabbit hole that the huntsman made an investigation. The skeleton of the lost dog was in the hole and a moulting collar with Fetch on it proved the unhappy fate of the dog, who died game and lost his life in following his master's orders. A large rock blocked the dog's egress and was probably loosed from its position by the animal's anxiety and efforts to find the rabbit.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

An Elective Monarch.

A million of men have died to preserve the constitution as it is but Providence has passed no law exempting Americans from the pressure of events or the operation of necessities. They will have to accept them, willing or unwilling, and will gradually find that the only effect of the changes is to make their choice of a president and, therefore, of his cabinet—for cabinet ministers in America are really only clerks—more and more a matter of vital importance.
The president of the United States will in no long period of time be the greatest elective monarch history has ever known.—London Spectator.

His Penny.

A little boy proposed to put a penny in the box for missions. His effort told him it would be useless to make so small a gift, saying it would never be noticed among the large contributions of others. He gave the penny, however, and when the collectors reported a collection of 26 5c.
1d. he whispered to his sister:
"There! that's my penny, you said it was so little it would never be noticed, and the gentleman has told the whole congregation about it!"

The Simplon Tunnel.

About 430,000 passengers passed through the Simplon tunnel in its first year. The freight fell short of expectations. The line earned $5-170 a mile; the estimate was $6,000.
The company calculated that the line would have to produce $6,000 in order that the second tunnel could be built, construction of which has been postponed.

John Wesley's Christening Robe.

The robe which John Wesley wore when he was christened over two hundred years ago is now the property of Miss Emma Pashley of Workshop, England, it having come to her from her grandfather, at whose use Wesley lived for a time when it was invented.

Be careful about that little cough. Get something right away, some good, reliable remedy that will move the bowels.
Kennedy's laxative cough syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take and is especially recomas good as maple sugar. Sold by E. L.

O'Connor Margaretville and C. W. Jenkins Denver.

AS TO LETTER WRITING.

Post Card Extent of Our Attention to Relatives.
It is a well-known fact that nobody writes letters nowadays. It is true we open a vast deal of time at our writing table, that we consume untold quantities of ink and nibs, while our stationary bill is by no means the most modern item of our ever-increasing expenditures.
But we neither write nor receive letters. The utmost we do is to "dash off notes" in answer to invitations, to "scribble a few lines" of congratula-tion or sympathy, as the case may be, with a friend; to express briefly but forcibly our dissatisfaction with our dreammaker, or our surprise of our milliner's account.
