The First Presbyterian Church, Pastor: Rev. C. C. Bransby. Services: Sunday, March 13. Our Motto: Be brief, practical and to the point.

Every seat free. Everybody welcome.

10:30—Morning Worship. 11:45—Graded Bible School. 4:30—Young People's meeting.

Topic: "Getting Power From our Prayers." Leader, Mrs. N. E. Osborne. 7:30—Evening Worship (special).

The Pastor will officiate at both services.

Special Attention is called to the increasing attendance and interest at our morning worship. This is symptomatic of great spiritual depth upon the part of the people, entailing a sacrifice and effort for many to attend the morning worship.

It is confidently believed that this growing interest and attendance is going to attain large proportions.

One of the morning features is the fine choral execution upon the part of the choir, and the choice selection of music so soothing and remedial in this age of strenuous life.

With an Adult Bible class of ever enlarging proportions, studying and discussing the deepest things of Life, "Let there be room" and great welcome for many more ladies and gentlemen.

Leader, the Pastor.

This Bible School offers unusual opportunities for those of all ages. Our scientific method of teaching, combined with lessons which are the product of the greatest minds is at the service of the people. Permit us to be of service to you.

Among the most interesting features of this holy day is our Christian Endeavor convening at 8:30 p. m. Come and join us.

This church recognizes its good fortune in possessing the unstinted services of one who has been pronounced to be the "American Tone Master," a Professor Ward Baker. This serviceable title is conferred upon Prof. Baker by R. E. Johnson, Esq. who is the greatest manager of musical celebrities.

Our town will be quick to appreciate this unprecedented opportunity in our musical program.

Selections for Sunday night, commencing 7:30 promptly. Orchestral—"Select."

Orchestral special—"Onward Christian Soldiers."

Final—"A Perfect Day." Sermon—"Promises from Revelation."

First Methodist Episcopal Church. Earle N. Hubbard, Pastor.

Morning Worship at 10:30 A. M. Topic of sermon—"The Forgotten Yow."

Will you not hearten the pastor in a special way by all trying to be present on this last Sunday of the Conference year.

This has been a year of unusual prosperity in every department of church life. A report will be given by the pastor concerning this excellent prosperity. You will want to hear it as it will be an inspiration to you.

Hand in your benevolences just as soon as possible. Hymns Nos. 69; 241; 277.

Our Sunday School increased its enrollment last Sunday as well as its attendance over several previous Sundays.

The lesson this week will be about Phillip and the Ethiopian. Make an special effort to come to Sunday School. Andrew Archibald, Supt.

Special attractions again this week at the Epworth League at 8:30 p. m. Topic—"The World Programme for the League." Leader, Miss Dora Race.

Last week we had one if not the largest attendance during the year. A place for everybody with something to do. A devotional meeting of true value to everybody. Come and enjoy it.

The evening service will present one of the unexcelled opportunities of the year in the way of a fine service. Our splendid town orchestra will play assisted by the choir. Also Prof. Ralph Herrick, Cornet soloists for Brook's Concert Band of Chicago will play. He is considered one of the foremost soloists in the United States.

The class meeting will convene under the leadership of brother Allison at 8:30. Wonderful help is derived by all who in the spirit of holiness attend this service.

HARDENBURG. T. O. Gavett of Plainfield and James Hewitt were business callers at Jay Gould's farm Tuesday.

George Owen, Jr., has been at home spending a few days with his parents.

Ora Kelly was a business caller at Arena Monday.

Claud Ackerly, Robert Leal and Wilbur Conklin made a trip to Beecher Lake Saturday to break out the road.
