

WM. J. DAVIDSON DIES AT ALBANY HOSPITAL

Prominent Arena Man Celebrated Seventy-Second Anniversary of His Birth Day Previous—Other Village News.

This community was both shocked and saddened on Monday morning when a telegram was received announcing the death of Wm. J. Davidson, which occurred on Sunday night at an Albany Hospital where he had been for several weeks for treatment. Recently he underwent a serious operation from which he was thought to be recovering nicely and was expected to soon be able to come home. He celebrated his 72 birthday on Sunday, the nurses at the Hospital making him a little party and a birthday cake and he was bright during the day and enjoyed it. His case seems particularly sad as his friends were so encouraged about his condition. His son D. W. Davidson of Sidney and Hugh Gorsch, undertaker of Margaretville went to Albany and accompanied the remains to his late home here on Wednesday. He is survived by his wife and two sons; the one mentioned above and Lynn, of Brooklyn and an adopted daughter, Mrs. L. Roy Jenkins of Mohawk. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson moved to this neighborhood several years ago from Parkville, where he has since very successfully conducted what is known as Riverside Farm. In connection with this farm interests he also conducted a large summer boarding house. Mr. Davidson was of a frank, genial nature and a man who was highly respected for his honest and upright dealings. The community has suffered a great loss and a kind friend and neighbor has gone whose place will not be readily filled. Much sympathy is expressed for his bereaved family by their many friends.

Miss Nina Muir died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muir, on Dingle Hill last Thursday night from influenza. Burial was at Andes on Monday. Mr. Muir and two other daughters have been so ill with the disease that very little hope has been held out for their recovery. However at this writing the attending physician, Dr. C. C. Faulkner, reports a slight improvement in their condition and has hopes of their recovery. Neighbors and friends have done everything possible for the stricken family and the greatest sympathy is expressed by the whole community for them in their trouble and bereavement.

Mrs. Ernest Rowe and little son who have been spending the last two months with her sister, Mrs. Murray Williams, returned to her home in Downsville on Monday.

Orson Slack returned to his home at Peckville, Pa. on Friday.

Frank Becker moved this week from the Wilbur Hotel, Arena, to Lewbach, where he has rented the VanSteensburgh building and will conduct a general store. Charles Becker moved on Tuesday from rooms over the Gavett blacksmith shop to the Wilbur Hotel, vacated by his brother.

Mrs. George Merritt will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society next Wednesday afternoon.

Chauncey Burroughs of Roxbury was a guest at O. A. Tremper's the last of the week.

Mrs. Murray Williams and little son Belmont are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hunt for a time until Mrs. Williams recovers his usual health.

The family of Will Franks have all been ill during the past week with influenza. They are recovering. Mrs. Effie White and Mrs. Wm. Franks, Sr., have been here to care for them.

Harry Tremper suffered a severe attack of neuralgia the fore part of the week.

Will Franks has rented his sap bush for the season to Gilbert Dumond.

Blue birds and robins have made their appearance again to the delight of all who hear their sweet songs.

Mrs. Perry Thomas was at Margaretville on Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kate Yaple, which was held from her late home at 2 o'clock. Burial was in the Old Cemetery near Arena.

Miss Jerome Rickard was called to Metuchen, N. J., on Saturday by the death of her brother-in-law, Harry Leisin at that place.

Mrs. Elijah Kittle of Alder Lake was a guest of Mrs. H. F. Wickham on Friday.

Mrs. Mary White and Mrs. Minnie Hewitt were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Adea at Union Grove on Friday.

Mrs. Allada Moore of Syracuse arrived in Arena on Sunday, called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. H. J. Slack, who at this writing is very much better.

Merritt Brothers mill in Arena is closed this week on account of the illness from influenza of their sawyer, Decker Merritt.

Karner Cookingham made a trip to Fleischmanns on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wilbur of Bovina are in town this week on business.

Hens Rush the Season. The winter has been so mild that a flock of Bainbridge hens prefer to build their nests out of doors. Olin Yale found a hen's nest on his farm out of doors, Feb. 13, which contained several eggs, and more have been added.

Have learned who the boys were who shot holes through my barn, if done again I shall prosecute them to full extent of the law.

Person who took my wire fence stretcher will please return it at once. M7th Signed, Ida Wynn—adv.

HALCOTTVILLE PUPILS HIKED FROM ROXBURY

Didn't Know School Was Closed on Monday Until They Arrived—Weekly News Budget.

Several from this place attended an O. S. B. meeting at Roxbury Sunday. There was no school at Roxbury on Monday on account of the funeral of Mrs. A. Lutz. The pupils who go from here didn't know there was to be no school and went as usual and some of them walked back, others remaining in the village until the evening train.

Mrs. Ann Kelly and daughter were visitors at Leon Woolheater's one day last week.

Otis Montgomery of Roxbury was a guest on Friday of his brother-in-law, A. Van Aken.

E. Dimmick, Art Miller and A. Van Aken are working for S. Traltr, helping finish his bungalow two miles above the village.

Mrs. Wilson Gavett of Arkville visited her sister, Mrs. L. H. Hubbell in this village Tuesday.

Mrs. George Kelly entertained the ladies' Aid Society on Thursday.

Kadan's truck which has been out of commission for a few days is on the job again.

Mrs. I. M. Whispell was a visitor at Kelly Corners on Tuesday.

E. R. Denny, Sheffield's foreman at the creamery has stored his goods at D. Lockwood's and has gone to Hobart to work in the creamery there for a short time.

Floyd Carkhuff has hired the Dan Humphrey house, and has moved his family there.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. Amos Allison.

Mrs. Amos Allison, 69 years old, long a resident of Margaretville, died Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock following an illness of about three years, the result of a shock received when she jumped from her husband's automobile in which she was a passenger, when it became more or less unmanageable while descending a grade in Roxbury village.

The deceased was born at Kelly Corners, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Florice Searles and removed to this village at the time she married Amos Allison, where she has since made her home. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Miss Hulda Allison, of this village.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She was an active member of the local M. E. church since 1872, having been received into the church by Rev. J. M. Burger.

Mrs. Kate A. Yaple.

Mrs. Kate A. Yaple, widow of Henry Yaple, died at her home in this village last Friday evening as a result of the infirmities of old age. She celebrated her ninety-first birthday a short time ago.

Kate A. Yaple was born at Arena and was married to George Stimpson, a cabinet maker, once well known in the Catskills, who died more than a quarter of a century ago. She later married Henry Yaple, who died some fifteen years ago. She is survived by a son, Frank Stimpson.

The funeral was held at the house last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Earle N. Hubbard officiating and the body was buried in the old cemetery at Arena.

J. V. Jordan Dies in Kingston.

J. V. Jordan, the pioneer Delaware County creamery man, died in a Kingston hospital the other day, after a long illness. He operated the first creamery in the county and was the owner of the Margaretville and New Kingston creameries among others at the time of his death. He came to the county about thirty years ago and since has been one of the most popular business men within its borders. Employees at the local plant have been advised that the business will be continued as heretofore by the estate. His home was at Newburgh.

Delhi Insurance Man Dead.

Word was received in Wal'on Thursday afternoon of the death in Oscar S. Nichols, the well-known Delhi insurance man.

Mr. Nichols went to New York about two weeks ago to undergo an operation. He was president of the Security Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Delhi. Mr. Nichols was a man of sterling qualities, which had gained him a host of friends throughout the county, and his death will be greatly mourned. He is survived by his wife.

State Buying Mountain Land.

Deputy Attorney General C. R. Cummings of Albany, was in town today looking over titles to mountain property in the County Clerk's office. Asked whether the State was acquiring mountain lands at this time, Mr. Cummings said that the State was buying lands freely now, for the purposes of the forestry department of the State Conservation Commission. The majority of the properties so being obtained are in Greene county, although the State is also buying in Ulster. (Catskill Mail).

New Wall Paper Samples.

I have received the 1919 wall paper samples and can show one of the most beautiful lines ever produced. Let us figure on your spring papering now. J. H. HENDRICKS, M14 Margaretville, N. Y.—adv.

COLD SPRING SCHOOL TO BE CLOSED MONDAY

Teachers Will Attend Conference at Roxbury—Interesting Incidents—Regarding the Community Life.

Our local school will be closed next Monday as a conference of teachers will be held at Roxbury to receive instruction in physical training.

Martin Cantwell has tapped his sugar bush. Our farmers are speculating as to whether the yield of sap will be large, owing to the unusually mild winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harrington and son Roger are visiting relatives and friends at Syracuse. Mr. Harrington's daughter, Mrs. Theodore Kuhl, accompanied them and will remain with her husband in Syracuse.

W. A. Whitney has been working the past week in the Cold Spring creamery in the place of Floyd Harrington.

Last week Thursday evening a very enjoyable dance was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Clark. There was a large attendance. Reed's popular orchestra furnished the music and the people old and young enjoyed a truly good old fashioned time.

Veteran Cigar Salesman Resigns.

Andrew M. Taylor of Port Ewen, who for the past thirty years has been traveling representative for the firm of G. W. Van Slyke & Horton, cigar manufacturers, of Kingston, has tendered his resignation to the firm to take effect in April. Mr. Taylor is a most efficient salesman, has a genial disposition and is liked by all who know him. He covered a large territory and undoubtedly will be missed by his many customers. Nothing definite has been decided upon by Mr. Taylor for the future.

Practical Use for Them.

"What's the use of having two or three homes, as these millionaires have?" asked the idle wayfarer who wanted to start a little conversation. "There's a whole lot of use," replied the man who was being carried. "If I owned two homes I'd live in one while my wife was cleaning the other."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Not the Doctor's Fault.

"She has been a steady customer of the beauty parlors," remarked Felicia, descriptively, "for a number of years. The reason the results are not all that might be desired is that the beauty doctors had so little to start on. She was, you might say, wholly without preliminary training for the course."
