NOTICE

Having taken the contract to move the barn at the old Maiben farm at the lake beyond Andes on the state road to Delhi, it will be to the advantage of any party in that vicinity having a building to move to correspond with me, as I will have my complete equipment there and can give a better price that I would otherwise be able to do.
Twenty-five years' experience, many satisfied customers for reference.
In my quarter of a century's experience I have never met with an accident to any building I was moving.

WITH THE CHURCHES

First Presbyterian Church, Margaretville.
Rev. Geo. W. Walker, Minister.
Church Services: Sunday morning at 10:30, Sunday evening at 7:30, church school Sunday at 11:30.

The series of sermons on "The Business of the Church" continues. Next Sunday morning Mr. Walker will preach on "Growth." While it is important that each church member should get the whole view of the business of the church from hearing the whole series, each subject becomes a unit in itself. "Growth" is the way of life. Thereby the church finds its soul. In the evening the sermon will be on "The Challenge of Leadership." The church school has begun the practice of the music in the special order of service to be used on Easter Sunday.

First Methodist Episcopal Church Margaretville, N. Y.
Rev. E. C. Tamblin, Pastor.

On Sunday next, at 10:30 a. m. the pastor will speak on the Prayer Life of Jesus Christ, as showing his assurance of the near presence of the Heavenly Father.
At 7:30, the Happy Evening Service. These services are growing in interest and attendance. The singing is constantly improving. Have you been attending? If not, you have missed things that are worth while. There will be the use of the Billy Sunday songs. A chance for you to engage in the song service. Miss Lucia Stewart will be the soloist. A service that will be to you and everyone who attends, a happy one. Come and bring your friends.

Stone School House
On this coming Sunday afternoon, the services will be resumed. We ask for your co-operation. Sunday school at 1:30 and preaching service to follow.

DRY BROOK

Mrs. Amos Mead of Arkville spent the week-end with Mrs. Nelson Gramham.
Mrs. Josephine Barnum is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Barnum, at Crosby Kelly's lumber camp.

Miss Gertrude Todd was taken to New York city to a hospital for treatment as she is suffering from diabetes.
Mark George had the misfortune to lose two valuable cows recently.
Misses Mildren Avery and Kathryn Stewart started in Monday at high school, having been absent for several weeks on account of sickness in the family.

Miss Dorothy Fairbairn, who has been employed in Kingston for the past winter, was called home by the illness of her father, David Fairbairn, who is now on the road to recovery.

Miss Alvie Fairbairn, who has been home for several weeks with whooping cough, returned to her place of employment Tuesday.

Frank M. Cooke and family of Dakota, formerly residents of this place, are now in Roscoe, where Mrs.

Cooke is caring for her mother, who is critically ill.
Paul McCann started Monday for Waterbury, Conn., to visit his mother.

Body of Former Resident Brought to Andes
From our Andes correspondent.
The body of Mrs. Lola Dales, who died in a hospital at Niagara Falls, was brought here Monday and placed in the vault. She will be remembered by Andes people as Mrs. Robert Bleakie, she being twice married.

Card of Thanks
We wish to thank all the kind friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and help to us in our sorrow by the recent loss of our dear mother and grandmother.
Hewitt Scudder and family,
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dimmick and family,
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truesdell.

OBITUARY

James Abner Morse
James Abner Morse died at his home at Halcottville, February 28, 1923. He was born on Hubbell Hill July 1923. He was born on Hubbell Hill July School Baptist church of Middletown when a young man, and was baptised by Elder Isaac Hewitt. He served in the civil war from August 21, 1862, until the close of the war. Returning from the war, he married Mary A. Owen December 19, 1866. He purchased a farm together with his father at West Conesville, Schoharie county, living there a few years. He traded his right in the farm with his brother, John A. Morse, and returned to Hubbell Hill. Some years after he sold his farm on Hubbell Hill to George Keator and moved to Halcottville, where he has since resided. He leaves to mourn his loss three children.—Mrs. Emma Davis, Mrs. Celestia Chapman and John Morse, all of Halcottville. A brother and sister, Ezra Morse and Mrs. E. A. Stillwill; also survive him.
By request of the family Elder George Ruston conducted the funeral services at his late home, and he was laid to rest in the Halcottville cemetery beside his beloved wife who preceded him eight years.

GET THE GOOD
Clothes Habit

A man gets pleasure out of most of his habits, but they usually cost a good deal of money. The good CLOTHES HABIT will bring you the pleasure all right; but best of all it will save your money.

You'll look better in good Clothes; you'll feel better; they'll wear so much longer that you won't buy so often.

We'll show you the new styles for Spring--

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX
MADE THEM.

New Spring Apparel and MILLINERY

An advance presentation of the new spring modes for women. Color, line design and fabrics—all that is new, all that is appealing, is so artistically and uniquely combined, that one will find it an equal delight to choose a single frock or a season-through wardrobe. For shadowed forth with brilliance and originality are interpretations of those subtle secrets of smartness which make so surely for vivid and lasting distinction.

WOMEN'S SUITS

favor Twillcords, Poiret Twills or Canton Crepes. The box Coat holds first place, both for the two and three-piece SUITS. There are many belted models.

WOMEN'S DRESSES

Beautiful beaded and embroidered Georgettes, Paisley Designs, Crepes, etc. are used.

THE COATS AND WRAPS

Capes very circular and full vie with coats for favor in the spring showings.

THE MILLINERY
