HALCOTTVILLE

Frank Constable and family have recently installed a Crosley radio which they are enjoying at present.
John Constable is confined to his home with an attack of the chicken pox.
Because of a breakdown, the Oneonta-Margaretville bus did not make the morning trip on Thursday last.
March came in nice and balmy and not like the proverbial lion.
Gerald Sanford was ill a few days last week and confined to his home.
L. H. Flemming of Oneonta was in this village on business on Thursday afternoon.
We heard some sleigh bells on Friday of this week for the first time this winter. The day is past when everyone used sleigh bells and drove cutters, so that to hear sleigh bells today is really news.
Elmer Bussey was in Margaretville one day last week to see a doctor about an infected finger. The finger at present is responding to treatment and no further trouble is expected.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinkley of Roxbury spent the day Friday in this village as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sanford.
One of the most successful and largely attended church suppers held in this village in many weeks was the supper held at the Grange Hall here last Friday evening under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society. The supper was an oyster stew supper with all the fixings that goes with it. There were over one hundred plates of the stew sold and the gross proceeds were nearly eighty dollars and the net proceeds were around sixty. Also many of the things that had been made by the Ladies' Aid during the past few months were displayed upstairs and put on sale. Many articles were disposed of in this way, which added mightily to the surplus from the affair. It is expected that another of these affairs will be held soon and also a bake sale will be held under the same auspices in the very near future.
William Scudder of Halcott Center spent the week-end at the home of his father, J. Wesley Scudder, who has been quite ill, but whose condition is reported better at this writing.
Old School Baptist meeting was held at the O. S. B. meeting house last Sunday, both morning and afternoon. Refreshments were served during the noon intermission. The regular pastor, Elder George Ruston of Kelly Corners, was the speaker in charge of the meeting.
Virgil D. Mead was in Roxbury last Friday evening attending a basket ball game there.
J. W. Weaver of Kingston, well-known here, who has been ill for some weeks past with pneumonia is better and is out on the job again. This will be good news to his many friends in this village.
Next week the M. E. Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. E. Griffin on Thursday, March 19, all day.
Dr. J. A. Gaul of Roxbury was through this village on business on Monday forenoon.
Abram Reed of Roxbury was in this village one day last week spending some time at the home of his father-in-law, J. W. Scudder, who is ill.
Most of the radios in this village were operated on Monday all day listening to the inauguration ceremonies that made Herbert Hoover President of the United States. The ceremony was the largest scale broadcast ever attempted by the broadcasters. It came to this village very clear.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Meade were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Miller on Sunday evening last.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carlhuff and family spent the evening of last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Humphrey here.
Stanley C. Meade is driving a new Essex coach these days.
Harry B. Morse was ill on Tuesday of this week and was unable to attend to his work at the Sheffield creamery in Grand Gorge on that day.

We have a nice line of bedroom Suites to choose from.

Some attractive dining room Suites at a wonderful low price, call and look them over, we will be glad to show them to you.

In overstuffed Suites we carry the three best lines that I know of and the quality is lasting and guaranteed, the Co's. stand behind me in this respect, so why should I not stand back of you.

In odd pieces, pieces like in bedroom outfits, a bed, spring and mattress for comfort, you can select from a dozen different styles.

Shades can be cut to fit your windows while you wait, cutting free of charge. It will take you twice as long to do this yourself and besides they will not be as accurate as the machine cuts them.

Call in with your size of kitchen and we will give you the cost of floor covered with linoleum whether cemented or otherwise.

Time is coming very soon when you will want to paint the wall of your rooms or the woodwork perhaps, varnish the woodwork or linoleum, call in as we have the DuPont's line. Last year the Government used more from this Company's line than any Company has ever sold to the Government in the history of the paint business.
