The way we conduct our Clearing Sales is our own idea. (It may be wrong.) But as we are not afraid of the landlord . . . Our hired help is very limited . . . Our living expense is within our income . . . So seasonable merchandise must go regardless of cost. Winter staple goods, we would like to see moving. Business at this time of the year is not very brisk . . . So, in order to stimulate sales, we throw in the whole lot . . . merchandise for any time of the year. We get a "kick" out of it when we see hundreds of customers taking Sam Bluestone at his word . . . and we don't mean Maybe
